B. Being comes before Doing

"A low standard of Christianity is responsible for all the shame and sin and wickedness in the world. Many Christians think it is all right to pattern after Jesus in a sort of way. They imitate Him and they do the things He did; that is, they outwardly do them. They perform kind acts and they do other things which Jesus did. But the secret of Christianity is not in doing. The secret is in being. Real Christianity is in being a possessor of the nature of Jesus Christ. In other words, it is being Christ in character, Christ in demonstration, Christ in agency of transmission. When one gives himself to the Lord and becomes a child of God, a Christian, he is a Christ man. All that he does and all that he says from that time on, should be the will and the words and the doings of Jesus- just as absolutely, just as entirely, as He spoke and did the will of the Father."

-John G. Lake
